THREATENED TO SHOOT—A FALSE REPORT CORRECTED.—A rumor prevailed on the streets, Saturday evening, to the effect that the sheriff of the county, Thomas J. Campbell, Esq., had become involved in a little difficulty at Rhinedale, near the far end of the Zaneatreet bridge, and got out of it by shooting a man. It affords us pleasure to assure the public that no such unfortunate occurrence took place. The only foundation for the rumor was that the sheriff, in the discharge of his official duties attempting to arrest a certain party for a violation of law, was obliged to draw a platol. The sheriff accompiliated his purpose and lodged his man age in tail. hed his purpose and lodged his man side, so that a very slight exertion would have sent it wide open. A small

EXTEMPORIZING A SHOWER BATH AND WHAT CAME OF IT.-A well known gentleman, engaged in the commission business in this city, who closely rebusiness in John Falstaff in one important particular, finding "the Fourth of July" too hot far his lardy frame, un-July" too hot far his lardy frame, un-July" too hot far his lardy frame, understand that the cooling influence of the cooling infl ence of a shower bath would be emi-nently grateful. Having arrived at his conclusion, our subject hit upon an his conclusion, our subject hit upon an expedient that would have reflected credit upon a son of New England's barren hills. Defing those indispensa-ble accompaniments of modern civilization, which cause merchant tailors to flourish, and require an immense deal of effort to procure, he stood forth in massive yet graceful proportions, something as Father Adam appeared to Mother Expelore fig leaves were discovered, and proceeding to the rear end of his place of business got out a small hose. Then, opening wide the door, he stepped into the alley just out of slight of profine eyes, turned the nozzle of his hose upwards, and immediately felt the please and shower descending upon his heated skin. ORGANIC WEAKNESS. mmediately cured and full vigor restor This distressing affection, which re-ife miserable and marriage impossible, ensity paid by the victims of improp-nigences. Young persons are too commit excesses from not being aware commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will present to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of bealthy offspring, the most serious and described we symptom of both body and mind arise. The system becames deranged, the Physicial and Mentai Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigession, Constitutional Debuilty, and Wasting of the Frams Cough, Consumption, Decay and Beath DR, JOHNSON,

DR. JOHNSON,
Member of the Boyal College of Surgaons, andon, Graduate of one of the most emicont Colleges in the United States, and the reater part of whose life has been spent in he hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphi, and elsewhere, has effected some of the mosstonishing cures that were ever known nany troubled with ringing in the head anars when saleep, great nervousness, being terangement of mind, were cured immeliately.

the Digestive Functions, General Debility Symptoms of Consumption, dects on the MENTALLI.—The featful effects on the mind are much to bedreaded. Loss of Mem ory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Sel Listrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, dec, are some of the evils produced.

YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or a school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asieep, and, if not cured, render marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately. What a pity that a young man, the hope or his country, the pride of his parents, should be snarched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indu git in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of piessure finds that he has imbroed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or disease the sense of shame or disease and the sense of shame or disease make their sense of shame or disease make their appearance, such as uncertimed sore throat, diessed nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the nead, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at set the paiate of the mouth or the bone of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts a period to ha dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no tavelier returns." Visiting or Wedding Card,

Undiscovered County
Traveller returns."

It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thoused and said victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskillfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that DEADLY POISON, MERCURY, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.
